

How Fast Tomato can help you meet the Gatsby Benchmarks

Gatsby Benchmark	Description	How Fast Tomato supports this Benchmark
1. A stable careers programme	Every school and college should have an embedded programme of career education and guidance that is known and understood by pupils, parents, teachers, governors and employers.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • It is suitable for students from Year 7 to 13 • The subscription model provides free, 24/7 access to all students, parents, governors and staff • It provides a stable, all-encompassing CEG hub for the entire school • Lesson plans are available to support a school's careers programme
2. Learning from career and labour market information	Every pupil, and their parents, should have access to good quality information about future study options and labour market opportunities. They will need the support of an informed adviser to make best use of available information.	Using key web resources: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students can explore career & labour market information including salary and employment trend data • They can research opportunities after the age of 16 and 18, including apprenticeships and further and higher education
3. Addressing the needs of each pupil	Pupils have different career guidance needs at different stages. Opportunities for advice and support need to be tailored to the needs of each pupil. A school's careers programme should embed equality and diversity considerations throughout.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • It provides a personalised service with career, educational and training suggestions individually tailored to each student, increasing their self awareness and understanding of the world of work • Fast Tomato can be used as a tool to support one-to-one guidance
4. Linking curriculum learning to careers	All teachers should link curriculum learning with careers. STEM subject teachers should highlight the relevance of STEM subjects for a wide range of future career paths.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Subject suggestions are based on student's interests, preferences and the criteria they need for their intended career directions • Web access means availability to information across curriculum and throughout all school years • There are nearly 700 career descriptions, including a broad range of STEM careers; these descriptions highlight the routes to each career and entry requirements

5. Encounters with employers and employees	Every pupil should have multiple opportunities to learn from employers about work, employment and the skills that are valued in the workplace. This can be through a range of enrichment activities including visiting speakers, mentoring and enterprise schemes.	Career and subject descriptions include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Video clips of employees talking about their job roles • Links to professional bodies and job sites
6. Experiences of workplaces	Every pupil should have first-hand experiences of the workplace through work visits, work shadowing and/or work experience to help their exploration of career opportunities, and expand their networks.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A student's career suggestions will highlight the areas where work experience is likely to be most beneficial
7. Encounters with further and higher education	All pupils should understand the full range of learning opportunities that are available to them. This includes both academic and vocational routes and learning in schools, colleges, universities and in the workplace.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Appropriate courses and learning opportunities are highlighted according to student's make-up and career intentions, allowing targeted research. • Students can access links to local FE colleges • Linking to UCAS and Eunicas, students can access information on over 50,000 HE courses in the UK and Europe
8. Personal guidance	Every pupil should have opportunities for guidance interviews with a career adviser, who could be internal (a member of school staff) or external, provided they are trained to an appropriate level. These should be available whenever significant study or career choices are being made. They should be expected for all pupils but should be timed to meet their individual needs.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students can access impartial, independent careers information and advice, for free, from professional careers advisers at Morrisby

The Morrisby Organisation

www.morrisby.com
0330 500 5000
support@morrisby.com

